

ASSOCIATE THEATRE EDUCATION DIRECTOR

Summer Season - with Future Consulting Potential

June through August, 2026

Summary

The Cape Playhouse (TCP), is seeking an Associate Education Director to operate one of the two age groups for the 2026 Summer Theatre Programming.

We are interested in hearing from professionals and early career artists looking to be involved with the historic Cape Playhouse and their Education Department. The Director will be responsible for developing the curriculum for the Summer Educational classes - based on licensed theatrical shows. Our Youth Education program dedicates itself to the continuing development of programming that will both teach and inspire youth looking to follow a path in the arts or simply become familiar with the disciplines.

Job Responsibilities

Specific duties include, but are not limited to:

- Plan, develop, and execute top-notch programs in keeping with the Cape Playhouse strategy and brand, supported by a team of professionals
- Manage Education Assistants as required for the program.
- Collaborate with the Marketing & Communication Manager to promote programs
- Build strong relationships with students and their families

Qualifications

Required Education and Experience:

- Minimum of 5 years proven leadership education experience in a theatre or school environment
- Committed and passionate about musical theatre and arts education
- Experience working with students ages 6 to 18 representing a diverse population
- Versed in a wide range of abilities and able to direct large groups of children in a fun and engaging manner.
- Excellent communications and interpersonal skills
- Able to collaborate and coordinate with the Admin staff to develop and execute the programs
- Must be available for the entire seasonal contract, including, but not limited to planning and production meetings

About The Cape Playhouse

The Cape Playhouse is situated within the Cape Cod Center for the Arts - a unique 22-acre campus on historic route 6A in the heart of Dennis Village, MA. The venue celebrates the best of the performing, visual, and culinary arts on the Cape. Our partner organizations include The Cape Cod Museum of Art, the legendary Cape Cinema, and Encore Bistro & Bar.

The Cape Playhouse has an illustrious history dating back to 1927, when our founder Raymond Moore embarked on a mission to carve out a place for us in the American Theatre landscape - in his words, he was "aspiring to be of service to many artist-workers and to be a source of inspiration and recreation to the community." Today, we operate the theatre as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and are proud to build upon his legacy.
